OUTDOOR FURNISHINGS

Today

The Sundrella sun rises as it has since 1956, and the outdoor furniture market has been a little brighter for it. Our company has a history of adapting, of moving forward with new styles and materials, new color trends and manufacturing techniques. In 2012, the Villella family wove a renewed purpose into the fabric of Sundrella Furniture with a promise to support American craftsmanship. As a result, we are now a 100-percent all-American manufacturer, from frames to fabrics, slings to straps, every element down to the bolts on every piece of our commercial-quality, designer aluminum furniture. We use only American-made raw materials and American labor in our 50,000+ square-foot production facility. We believe that's what has kept Sundrella burning bright, and will be that way for as long as the sun continues to shine.

HAMILTON

The county of Hamilton proudly calls itself “Florida’s Front Porch,” which is exactly the feeling that is evoked in this cozy-casual collection. Hewn from 100% teak wood, Hamilton’s taut curves and angles bring intrigue to any leisure space. Plus, its foldable and lightweight structure gives you the freedom to change your mind—and your design—with the wind.

STYLES: LOUNGE CHAIR, FOLDING SIDE CHAIR, BISTRO TABLE, END TABLE, LIFE-EDGE COFFEE TABLE

ISLEWORTH

The Isleworth collection is an elegant jewel among the moss-draped oaks that surround it. The fluidity of its structure blends its armrests seamlessly into its own supports, reflecting itself as the lakes reflect the shore.

This collection's namesake is the luxurious golf community of Isleworth, whose natural and sophisticated Florida style is both set against and nestled into the Butler Chain of Lakes. Likewise, Isleworth chairs and lounges give off an unmistakable country club vibe, while still evoking the gentle curvature of a Central Florida landscape.

STYLES: LOUNGE CHAIR, DINING CHAIR
FABRIC: RELAXED SLING, WHITE FX
FRAME: BLACK

VALHALLA

Just as Valhalla is both a victorious afterlife in Norse mythology and a heavenly resort neighborhood in the heart of the Florida Keys, so too is this collection a melding of classical legend and coastal luxury. Its gentle, sloping angles evoke the rolling of the tides, while fanciful swirled armrests, arched stretchers, and cylindrical footing bring forth the stunning architectures from ancient times.

With its graceful blend of poised formality and contemporary comfort, the Valhalla collection will shine against any backdrop, from ivy to palm trees, from stucco to sandstone, and everything in between.

BAKER

The quiet county of Baker, resting casually against Georgia's thumbprint in the far northeast corner of Florida, is an ode to wide open spaces. Far from the palm trees and bustling coastal towns the rest of the state is known for, Baker opts instead for back roads, wildflowers, and wilderness. So, too, is the Baker collection an echo of the outdoors. Its lightweight teak frame's wide posture offers plenty of elbow room, while its tapered cushions remind you to relax and take things slow. A different touch of Florida, Baker is just as suited to a modern patio as it is a tree-lined escape.

Tomorrow

What does the future hold for Sundrella? In the same way the sun always rises, we expect the immense strides our company has made to lead us forward for years to come. Growth is not a given; it is up to us to anticipate it, to plan for it, to invite it. Like all successful companies, we know the one constant we can depend upon is change. The commercial furniture market is as unpredictable and as subject to at-a-moment's-notice shifts in trends and market pressures as any. So, it is critical that we stay vigilant, to adapt and pivot when necessary. If the past 65 years have taught us anything, it's that we can never rest on our laurels. Sundrella will always strive for beauty, comfort, and greatness, both in its products and its operations. We will always provide the most durable and affordable outdoor furniture under the sun.
